

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1872.

NOTICE.

Those of our advertisers who desire changes made in their advertisements, must hand in copy on Monday morning next.

All communications, either of a general or local character, should be addressed to HILTON & CAMPBELL, 100 Main street, Lexington.

All notices excepted as for advertising, subscriptions or other sums sent to others, postoffice money or post office bills, or will be returned.

James Cook is the agent for the Western Union to conduct his Job-Wire. Advertising attend to subscriptions.

John C. Cook, 100 Main street, Lexington.

W. C. Cook, subscriber, E. M. Bryant, 100 Main street, Lexington.

LOCAL BREVIETIES.

Danville has a work-house, Stanford needs one.

Hogs in this season are selling for $3 to 4c. gross.

We charge one dollar for announcing publ. speaking.

Walnuts are a partial failure this season, owing to the summer drought.

Chesnut have doubled the market for several days. The crop is a fine one.

If you don't get your apples in a few days, you will have none for winter.

Rev. G. O. Bates has a few audience last Saturday, both morning and evening.

The cold weather of the past few nights has somewhat injured the lengthened apples.

Adam Genel is now prepared to serve fresh oysters in any manner desired, at all hours day or night.

Hickory nuts are not in good condition owing to the dry summer weather, but the crop is abundant.

Milk from over six p.m., on Monday night last. We never saw the like before this early in October.

Squire Davis held his fall term of Court on Saturday last, having a large docket of warrants for debt.

All those who desire to join the Phillips Society at this place should leave their names to the president of the society.

If Aunt Myra is sufficiently recovered from her fatigue, we shall let her know what she knows about the "Revolving."

The Court of Claims had a long and busy session last Tuesday and Wednesday. Many trials were allowed. All the juries were present.

No country has a kinder-hearted jailor than ours. At least, all who are confined in our prison speak in high terms of his treatment toward them.

FROM PULASKI COUNTY.

SOMERSET, KY., Oct. 15, 1872.

Correspondent Interior Journal.

POLITICAL.

Although the recent elections in Ohio and Pennsylvania have caused great joy in the Radical camp, and made the supporters of General Grant jubilant over their success, the glad tidings, however, so exultingly received by them, has not even a glimmer over the brow of a single true Democrat. We were not disappointed at the result in Ohio and Pennsylvania, having merely a hope that these two States would look to the interest of the nation and Republican institutions, and cast their votes and theirs upon the great battle being presented by the present administration, not least. The United States treasury and our State funds to meet the expenses of the war, were not spared by the present administration.

All modes excepted as for advertising, subscriptions or other sums sent to others, postoffice money or post office bills, or will be returned.

James Cook is the agent for the Western Union to conduct his Job-Wire. Advertising attend to subscriptions.

John C. Cook, 100 Main street, Lexington.

W. C. Cook, subscriber, E. M. Bryant, 100 Main street, Lexington.

FROM TURNERSVILLE.

TURNSVILLE, KY., Oct. 15, 1872.

Correspondent Interior Journal.

Although the recent fall of rain enables our farmers to proceed with their preparations for Fall, seeking which the continued dry weather of the past seven weeks has retarded. The dry weather, however, has presented a favorable opportunity for cutting corn and weeding fields, which has been improved as our late rains and thousands of feeder ditches attack.

ST. CH. MATTERS.

Mr. Rice, a gentleman from Cincinnati, an extensive dealer in cattle, has reduced the trade quite lively here by his numerous and heavy purchases. He deals chiefly in New York cattle, paying from $5 to $7 per cent and even as high as $8 for extra quality.

Mr. Good's, a large lot of stock and feeding cattle.

W. C. Falley bought of Mr. Cook of Tennessee, 400 head of sheep at $2.50 per head.

Remember also, Turnersville, that Judge Durbin is to be voted in November. This man is true to his party and gifted with rare talents that will shed honor upon our district. He is just the man, stern and unyielding to battle with the Radical elements in the halls of Congress, and if he lives he is certain to be there at the post of duty.

The citizens of the county will contribute heavily towards the supply of pork this year. We hear of no engagements at any price for future delivery.

We regret to state that we are soon to lose one of our most estimable and valuable citizens in the person of Robert Hill, who we learn will shortly start to Texas. Mr. Hill is a young gentleman of worth and enterprise and will prove a valuable acquisition to any community in which he may settle.

The Trustees of Union Academy, like all men to whom are entrusted the management of great and momentous affairs, have agreed to stand on record in regard to the most proper plan to conduct the ensuing session of the common school, that the parsons had become really apprehensive that they would have no school at all. They have at last, however, happily agreed upon employing Mr. John Skinner, a young man fresh from his collegiate studies at Lexington, and no doubt possess rare qualifications and abilities as a teacher.

We understand by his conduct that he believes appreciation of the value of good discipline, as gave the assembled scholars to the very first week, and would if they didn't mind and regard his rules, find in him a "skinner" in fact, as well as name.

How is it, Mr. Edling, that with the country teeming with slaves, State, district, county and assistant county elections, and with announcements of public speaking staring at us every day since, was in tarry killed by a handipike thrown with great force by the weight of a heavy gunnal or girder. His skull was broken and crushed in a horrible manner.

He was a good citizen and a hard working, industrious man. He leaves a wife and five children to mourn his fate.

LAWYER GOULD.

J. N. Jones, residing three miles south of Somersett, has a vine in his garden which has produced two gourds missing in circumference 4 feet 10 inches and 4 feet 1 inch each holding double over one hundred. The seed was planted in a potato bed and transplanted.

EALF'S REAL ESTATE.

J. H. Boiling has sold his residence on Main street to Mrs. Harriet Lair, at the price $1,400.

M. E. Ingram has purchased one-half of the stone mill and carding factory two miles from Somersett on the road leading to Stanford, Mr. Joseph Hockley receiving in charge of the factory a store house and other town property.

EDWARD AND REBECCA.

Wm. Lewis, a citizen of our county, while getting out and loading heavy coal boat time, a few days since, was in tarry killed by a handipike thrown with great force by the weight of a heavy gunnal or girder. His skull was broken and crushed in a horrible manner.

He was a good citizen and a hard working, industrious man. He leaves a wife and five children to mourn his fate.

ROBERTSON'S.

D. F. Boiling and C. J. Hockley start to the Southern market very soon with a number of extra horses and mules. J. R. Ingram & Son will also start with their second drove of mules this fall, in a few days.

THE GOOD TEMPLAR.

It is rumored that we are to have a new drug store in our town as early as this month. "Competitition is the life of trade," but it must be a good one to come with the old reliable and well established house of J. R. Richardson, who is in the No. 1药房.

ALERT.

N. F. Thompson, G. W. T. Chapman, L. H. Harter, G. W. V. T. Chapman, Frankfort, H. A. M. Henderson, G. W. Chapman, Frankfort, Tim. Neelam, G. W. Settany and Tressner, Louisville, Miss. Flannery, Murray, G. W. A. S. Hildreth, Jas. T. Williams, G. W. M. Henderson, Mrs. Bell Hardin, G. W. D. M. Monterey, John F. Davis, G. W. I. G. Padushe, A. Calhoun, G. W. Settany, Caton, J. T. Martin, G. W. Settany, Lexington, J. J. Hickman, F. G. W. C. T. Louisville.

G. W. Bain, J. J. Hickman, The Nedham and Miss Alice Drake were elected delegates to the W. G. Convention of Good Templars throughout the world, to be held in London, England, on the 4th of December, 1872. Miss Laura Barret, N. F. Thompson, Rev. H. P. Walker and Miss Maggie Buford were chosen alternates.

The salary of G. W. C. T. was fixed at $4,000, with the understanding that he devote about half of it to paying off the debts of the Good Templar's. The Grand Warden, Mr. McElroy, was employed as a lecturer at a salary of $2,000.

The degrees were made a necessary qualification for election officers. A resolution disclaiming all connection with any political party was adopted unanimously. A resolution providing for the organization of youth lodges, to be called "Good Templar's," was adopted.

A resolution was adopted authorizing the G. W. C. T. to appoint a suitable person to represent the exclusive use of colored Good Templars in separate and distinct lodges, chartered by and subordinate to the Grand Lodge. Under this resolution Dr. H. A. M. Henderson was appointed to prepare an appropriate ritual, and the Executive Committee was authorized to make him a suitable allowance for preparing the same, as also for printing the ritual in the annual book.

The next session of the Grand Lodge will be held in Henderson, Ky., commencing on the second Tuesday of October, 1873.

FRESH oysters served in any manner at all hours at Carson & Dods.

NEW MUSIC.

We are authorized to say to the young ladies and gentlemen, and lovers of music generally, that this is the time for the young to make themselves into a Philharmonic Society.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.

Music every Saturday night, and return to the doors at the end of the evening.